Our SPRING Class Series will run in 12-week intervals.

Our SPRING series will begin on March 9th 2020. Late arrivals are welcome to start part way through the series (we will pro-rate your payment based on your entrance date). Once your slot is confirmed, you will be scheduled into your class each week for the remainder of the session. If you are unable to attend one of the series slots, we will allow each client to make up one class on another date of their choice (within the series period). Once you have selected and paid for your spot, you have committed to the duration of the series and changes cannot be made. Any STAT holidays will be credited back as drop in to make up at a later date.

12-Week Reformer Series - $359

Spots are first come first served. Please confirm by Friday February 28th to secure your spot.

Our 12-Week Reformer Series Schedule

1. Any unsold series slots can be booked as a drop in. We will accept drop in reservations the week of each class. In order to reserve the slot, the client must have a valid 10-pack or pre-paid drop in on account.
2. Drop in slots will be removed as series members confirm.
3. You are paying for the entire 12 weeks of participation. In the case that you are absent, missed classes are non refundable, however, one missed class per series can be made up during the series. In the event of a missed class cancelled by Zenbar, we will credit a drop in to the account or host a makeup week at the conclusion of the series.
4. It is required that each series participant completes the client waiver in full. If you have not completed this in its entirety, we will contact you prior to beginning the new series. I know we all dislike paperwork but it is an insurance requirement
